Completed Big Contract.

Mr. B. F. Hurst, of the Richmond Heating & Plumbing Co., returned a few days ago from Jackson, this State, and reports the work completed on the Ewen Hotel, which contract has been under way for several weeks. The Ewen Hotel Co. has recently installed in each bed room a stationary wash stand with running hot and cold water and a splendid hot water heating plant. This is the only hotel in Jackson that has such modern conveniences. The last contract, which is just completed, is the electric equipment, which furnishes adequate lights for all the rooms, halls, porches and the commodious dining room.

Miss White Entertains.

Miss Mary Jane White was hostess to a few friends at her pretty and attractive home on the Jack's Creek pike Saturday evening and Sunday. Music, games and refreshments, such as sherbet, ice cream, candies and cakes, were served and enjoyed by those present, Saturday evening. Sunday morning the young people attended church. The guests were, Misses Clara Gibson, Margaret Jett, Bertha and Eva Haden, Mary Oldham, Willie May Deatherage, and Messrs. John Doty, Jack Phelps Embury, Cecil and Carl Haden, Lodell McFarrell, John Parke and Perry Deatherage. N.

Prospects Flattering.

Prof. W. E. Gwynne, who spent several days with his father at Georgetown, tells us that the elder Gwynne, Rev. W. B. is making a strong race for the Democratic nomination for State Senator, and that the knowing ones are not only saying he will win, but are betting odds on it. We had the pleasure of meeting Rev. Gwynne when he visited his son here some months ago and were very much impressed with the splendid old gentleman. He is one of the few preachers who have been consistent Democrats and he is truly one of the old school. We are told that Superintendent of Public Instruction Barksdale Hamlett, who is not an admirer of Dr. Gwynne because of an imaginary grievance, is stumping the district for Mr. Ford, his opponent, but that he is fighting a waning cause. Seems to us that Mr. Hamlett had better remain at Frankfort and attend to the duties for which he was elected. It is not his fight, to say the least.

I extend an invitation to every person who takes part in the Democratic primary to be held Saturday, August 2, to vote for me for the nomination for Sheriff. If I have not asked your support, consider this an invitation to vote for me. Elmer Deatherage. 84 St.

Box Supper a Success.

The box supper at Concord schoolhouse on Saturday night was a success. A large crowd was present and everybody had a good time. The boxes sold for $20.65, due very probably to the good work of "Coz." Pleas Broadus, who outdid himself as auctioneer. A portion of the money taken in was applied to the organ fund, which liquidated the debt that has been standing for some time.

Summer Concert.

It has been announced by the ladies of the Infirmary Association that a concert will be given for the benefit of the Pattie A. Clay Infirmary on the evening of August 5th at the Normal Chapel. The concert will be given by Mr. J. A. Panther, tenor, and Mrs. Panther, pianist, of Terre Haute, Ind., who are spending the summer here. Mrs. Panther, who was formerly Miss Edna Giunchigliani, is well known for her musical ability by all music-lovers of Richmond, her home town, but it has been some time since she has been heard here in concert. Since leaving Richmond Mrs. Panther has made remarkable progress as a concert pianist and has concertized with her husband in many towns in Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky and Illinois, and has met with great success. The last time she played before a Richmond audience was more than two years ago, when she appeared as soloist and accompanist with the Lyric Quartet, a well-known Cincinnati organization. Mr. Panther also sang in this concert as tenor soloist. He is the head of the voice department of the Terre Haute Conservatory of Music and is well known as a soloist throughout Indiana. While at the College of Music in Cincinnati he was the soloist in two prominent churches and his services were always in great demand. The program will be arranged so that it can be enjoyed by everyone, and will consist of classic and modern compositions. It is possible that a local singer will assist, but this cannot be definitely said at this time. Music-lovers should turn out in full force to hear these young people. Tickets will be on sale in a few days.

Is your house and barn insured? Better see Burnham, the insurance man. If Strong For County Unit.

Mr. A. D. Miller, who is making a strong and aggressive race for the nomination for Representative, asks us to state to the voters that he is an ardent advocate of the County Unit Bill, and if elected, will do anything in his power to see that no effort to repeal this bill is successful. He is an ardent temperance man from conviction, and during his editorial control of the Climax, was always found on the right side fighting for the good of his community and his state on this important question. If elected he will be found on the right side at Frankfort, and there is little doubt that men of his caliber will be needed, as the whisky forces will do everything possible to enact new legislation favorable to their cause. A vote for Miller is a vote against saloons. Remember this when you come to the polls. Furthermore he is a capable man along all other lines, and would in every way make a member of whom his constituents may be proud. 2t. adv.

Berea Fair Next Week.

In our advertising columns will be found the announcement of the Berea Fair, which begins next Wednesday and continues over Friday. There will be three big days and, as the advertisement states, each day will be candidates' day. There is a ring for almost all classes of stock and interesting races are carded for each afternoon. The Madison county colt futurity, premium $500, will be one of the big drawing cards. There are many entries and the fight for supremacy will be a hot one. Mr. A. R. Gibbs is president of the Association and E. T. Fish is the efficient secretary. Write to the latter for catalogues or on business concerning the Fair.

Helping The Consumer Helps Business.

The business philosophy of downward tariff revision is summed up by the Kansas City Times in a single sentence: "Whatever helps the consumer helps those who supply the consumer."

If the prosperity of the United States were dependent upon any one group of men or interests, what particular welfare would be a guarantee of the common good, then the special favors which the high tariff has granted might be defensible, if not praiseworthy. But the fact is that the prosperity of this country depends upon the welfare of the average citizen—the average laborer, the average farmer and merchant and business man, whatever his pursuit may be. It is from these unknown and innumerable little streams that the great tides of commerce gather volume and flow freely onward with enriching power. And so any system that burdens or hinders their course is inexpedient as well as unjust.

The high protective tariff has been maintained on the fallacious theory that the way to make the nation prosperous is to tax the rank and file of the consumer for the benefit of a comparatively few special interests. The result has been prosperity of a kind, no doubt; but not the kind of prosperity that counts for national strength and progress. The important thing is, as President Wilson has so aptly said, not that the majority of the people shall be permitted to share in the prosperity of a few, but that they shall be free to originate prosperity of their own.

This is the great heritage of business liberty which a thorough downward revision of the tariff will vouchsafe. By overthrowing monopoly, it will open the way for individual enterprise and initiative. By lifting a tax from the income of the average man and the average family, it will clear and quicken the common channels of trade. The country awaits the effect of the pending tariff bill, which now seems assured of an early passage, not only with confidence and equanimity, but also with hope, for better times. "Speculative business of Wall Street," as the Times says, "may be as fearful now as it always is when any change is coming. But you cannot make merchants afraid of a condition that means there will be more money to spend and more people that have it to spend it. Whatever helps the consumer, helps those who supply the consumers."

The Ballots.

The Climax has been and is yet busy getting out the ballots to be used in the primary of August 2. For Madison county 75 books are required and those to be used in the four Richmond precincts are pretty large ones. There are 25 precincts in this good county and as three parties are asking nominations, there will be three books to each precinct—one for the Democrats, one for the Republicans and one for the Progressives. Each ballot has to be printed on both sides, perforated in two places, numbered in two and then bound, trimmed, labeled, etc., etc. So it will be seen that there is some work about the job. Some 500 or more pounds of paper were required to print them. We are glad to state that the Climax, which takes some pride in doing the big jobs, was able to turn out this order and many other heavy ones, including a book, without engaging extra workmen, those of the force doing double duty some days and nights. It is a pleasure to have such a force, but then it is good to have such a business proposition as the Climax is.

A Mistaken Method.

A story comes from England that rather taxes our credulity. It runs that the third son of King George, Prince Henry, a boy in his teens, now at preparatory school, is allowed only the pitiful sum of $2.50 a week pocket money. He, as a matter of course, finds this insufficient and has been forced to attempt to supplement it by questionable means.

He first applied to his parents for an increase of his allowance. His father seemed inclined to grant it, but his mother, who seems to be the head of the family, promptly refused. The boy then thought of a financial expedient that was a stroke of genius. He had, of course, various letters from his parents and other members of the royal family. He was well aware that these had a value for collectors of autographs and he proceeded to sell some of them. He received $50 for the letters and was for a time happy. But the King and Queen heard of the transaction, sent the $50 to the purchaser and demanded the letters, which were, of course, promptly returned. The budding financial genius was informed that if he could not make the sum of $2.50 suffice for his needs he would be taken from school and placed back under a tutor as he had been before.

Some comments on the affair have been favorable to the course of action followed by the royal parents. This appears, in our humble judgment, to be a mistake. Instead of teaching the boy habits of economy and self-sacrifice and begetting "Spartan simplicity" of conduct, the apparent tendency is exactly to the contrary. It will cause the formation of habits of extravagance fostered by the possession of funds clandestinely obtained, and will develop in the boy's make-up craftiness, deceit and deception instead of that frankness and sincerity that are perhaps his natural traits.

Mr. Bryan may not be losing his regard for the great common people, but certain it is that he no longer cares to be one of them. His cry for a larger salary puts him in the other class. He says he can not live on $12,000 a year. Wonder what he thinks about some of our common folk who are trying to eke out an existence on $12 a month or less? The great Commoner is getting most uncommon since his association with the nabobs at the nation's capital.

With one Ohio preacher in jail at East Liverpool for stealing a watch and another in jail at Cleveland for borrowing a horse when its owner did not know it, it would seem that the Buckeye ministers are a trifle too covetous and greedy to be called consistent Christians, to say nothing of the appellation of "Man of God," as many of them like to be known as.

A SCIENTIST is teaching the virtues of the goat, saying that its milk is immune to germs, and that it is the only animal that is not a potential tuberculosis carrier. Still, we should remember this—that we tend to the qualities of the food we eat; and we have enough citizens who butt and bleat now.

Mrs. Victoria Joles, of Taylorsville, was killed and several others were injured when an auto in which they were riding skidded from a bridge into a ravine near Bloomfield.

The Republicans have served notice on the democrats of the Senate that there will be no unnecessary delays in considering the tariff bill and that they will confine their fight to amendments without efforts to delay final vote.

Republican Senators continued to offer amendments to nearly every paragraph of the Underwood-Simmons Tariff bill when its reading was resumed, and Democrats, by solid party vote, defeated them. Senators Weeks and Weeks, in speeches, criticized the bill.

Judge Matt Harbeson, in the Kenton circuit court, handed down an order declining to appoint a receiver for the Burley Tobacco Co. in the case of Elmer B. Stanifer on behalf of stockholders of the Burley Tobacco Co. against Clarence LeBus and 50 other defendants.

At the close of a stormy session on the Currency bill, Chairman Glass is reported to have about given up hope of getting the Democrats to agree on the measure. President Wilson held a conference with Representative Henry at a late hour, and it was stated that the chaotic conditions confronting currency legislation had caused the President to forego his vacation.

Filling Big Order.

The Blanton Lumber Co. is this week getting ready to ship to Irving the pattern for a splendid home. Dr. Tracy Wallace is building there. It will be one of the most elegant homes in the county of Estill.

Opera House Saturday Night.

The Thanhauser classic, "Carmen," complete in three reels, with Jno. Cruze and Margaret Snow and the well-known Thanhauser cast. With a good comedy reel, making a four-reel show, taking an hour and a half. This entertainment will be well worth seeing.

Sid Winkler Held to Grand Jury.

Sid Winkler, who stabbed to death Wade Reeves last Saturday afternoon, had his examining trial Wednesday. Most of the day was taken up with the trial and a number of witnesses were examined. He was held over to the September grand jury in $500. The facts brought out in the trial were about those stated in the last issue of this paper.

Prof. Stackhouse Chosen.

The Board of Education of the city of Richmond, at its meeting the other day, unanimously elected Prof. Stackhouse to succeed Prof. M. L. Caner, as principal of Caldwell High School. Prof. Stackhouse has spent a year at Harvard and recently has been taking a post graduate course at State University. He comes highly recommended. The board also elected Miss Curran Smith a teacher in the grades—a very excellent selection. Miss Smith has recently returned from Panama, where she has been teaching.

New Company Organized.

G. A. Roy, the Lexington and Nicholas county capitalist, and C. E. McCarthy, formerly with the Harding Drug Company, have organized the Pepsinoid Company, which will exploit a new medical preparation called Pepsinoid, a specific for stomach trouble. The company has fitted up an office and salesroom at 165 N. Limestone street, this city, in the building recently purchased and remodeled by Mr. Roy, and has begun business under favorable auspices.—Lexington Leader.

An advertisement of Pepsinoid, a wonderful remedy for stomach trouble, appears in this paper.

Important to Voters.

Considerable apprehension exists among some of those interested in the outcome of the primary on August 2nd, lest some of their friends in voting their ballots make one mark under the rooster and let it go at that. No one should make such a mistake. The time to make one mark under the rooster is in the November election. In the primary Saturday week the voter must make a mark in the square opposite the name of each candidate for whom he wishes to vote, and no other. If he marks opposite the name of more than one man in each race, his vote is lost. Stamp in the square opposite the name of your man in each race, and not under the rooster this time.

Another Madison Jury In Murder Trial.

The jury summoned from this county to Winchester in the case of Andrew Johnson for conspiracy in the murder of Ed Callahan, in Breathitt county, and which gave Johnson a life sentence, so pleased Judge Benton by its attentive service and perfect deportment that he summoned another lot of men from this county from which to select a jury to try D. F. Deaton on the same charge. Ninety men were summoned from which the following twelve men were chosen as jurors: Messrs. W. A. Langford, G. F. Burnett, S. W. Lackey, C. B. Arnett, Ralph Park, C. C. Coy, C. C. Long, W. T. Adams, W. D. Lordson, George W. McKinney, Thomas Foley, M. F. Enright. Attorney C. C. Wallick, of this place, went over to help select the jury.

A Generous Offer.

The Kentucky Utilities Co., which owns the Electric & Power plant here, has through its clever manager, Mr. Geo. T. Bogard, made a very liberal offer to the less fortunate citizens of this city. He has been authorized to proffer to any person who is ill and cannot afford an electric fan, the use of one, the company to put it in at its own expense and maintain it. This will be done when the home can be reached for its distributing lines. Of course when it is necessary to erect a pole and set a transformer, it would take so much time, that the Kentucky Utilities Co. doesn't think it expedient to make the offer. However, it will cheerfully wire, without expense, the homes of those who want a fan and feel that they cannot afford one. If you are so unfortunate as to have a sick person in your home and want a fan and haven't the money to pay for it, see Mr. Bogard and he and his clever company will furnish you post haste.

We buy all kinds of country produce, pay the highest market price. Give us a call. Covington Thorpe Co. 57-17

Opera House To-night.

The great six-reel production of "Cleopatra," with Helen Gardner as Cleopatra, and an excellent cast. This is pronounced by all as one of the best pictures ever shown.

Burnam Farm Sold.

R. C. Stocker has bought of Mrs. E. T. Burnam her farm of 224 acres, adjoining his home on the Tate's Creek pike, at $127.50. This is a splendid farm and while the price looks high, judges of land say it is not more than it should have brought.

Notification of Draft.

W. J. Newsom, State Manager of the Modern Brotherhood of America, has received notification that draft has been forwarded Mrs. Mollie Hasty, of Wildie, for $1,000, amount of policy carried by her daughter, Miss Sallie Hasty, in that great order.

Will Hardly Take Advantage Of It.

Candidates in the primary, to be held August 2, have the right, legally and otherwise, to withdraw from the race any time between now and the primary, but as most of them have spent a wealth of boodle and a lifetime of talk, they will hardly take advantage of the opportunity. In fact, of all the half hundred or more candidates before the people in this county, there is not one who is not absolutely certain of finishing first in his race.

Sold His Interest.

Mr. J. J. Embury, who is not as young as he was some few years ago, has decided that he has too much business for a man of his years and is beginning to dispose of it. His first act was to sell his interest in the Normal City Laundry, one of the best money-makers in town, to Mr. Eugene Miller, formerly of this city, but who has been in Panama for some time. The firm is now composed of Messrs. Hugh Tevis, George Goodloe and Eugene Miller, a hustling trio; who will increase the already big business being done by the popular laundry.

Three Wholesale Groceries.

Richmond now has three wholesale groceries—Good, progressive ones where everything in the grocery line can be secured. Two of the houses—Kellogg & Co. and Arnold, Hamilton & Luxon—are old and well-known, but "The House of Hurst," is yet in its teens. A few days ago Mr. Sam Hurst, the hustling proprietor of "Hurst's Store of Quality," decided that he would hereafter sell to dealers only, and the next morning he was a wholesale grocer, doing business under the catchy name of "The House of Hurst." We are glad to say that he and the other houses of his line are all doing splendidly.

Marshal Mays Getting In His Work.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Mays doesn't look like he is doing much these long, hot July days, but he takes in an evildoer occasionally, notwithstanding. He arrested Arthur Carpenter, of Jackson county, at Spears, in Jessamine county, the other day on the charge of bootlegging, and brought him here. He gave bond for his trial on July 31. Mr. Mays had been carrying the writ of arrest for several months. He also landed Joseph Dillingham, colored, who had been on the lookout for nearly two years. Dillingham, who is charged with selling booze, left this section and located at Dayton, Ohio, and was back here on a visit. He now languishes in duarce vile.

His Horse All Right.

Mr. C. W. Cobb, of the Red House section, was a caller at this office the other day. Asked how his splendid stallion, Arrington, was getting along, he said: "Doing fine; greatest horse in this section of the State. It was reported that he was sick of black tongue, but that was all a mistake." We asked him what he thought about this disease, and whether it could be carried from one steed to another in one's clothes. He laughed and said: "Certainly not this time of the year, when none of us wear more clothing than is absolutely necessary to hide our nakedness. I believe that black tongue can be cured all right, if taken hold of in time. I am certain that I could carry my horses through it without a great deal of danger."

MARRIED

Charles Williams and Miss Rena Powell, both of Berea, were joined in wedlock's holy bond on the 24th.

Samuel Davis Kelley and Miss Margaret Johnson, popular Berea people, were made one yesterday.

C. H. Kindred and Miss Laura Moberly, popular young people of the Waco section, were joined heart and hand at the bride's home Wednesday night, Rev. R. O. Beck officiating.

The "Ad." Did It.

"I sold my horse and rig advertised in the Climax to James Hurnsley," said W. W. Broadus to us this afternoon. "It certainly does pay to advertise in the Climax," he added.

Mrs. Nannie Glass Dead.

Mrs. Nannie Glass, aged 87, mother of Mrs. Thomas Millon, of this city, died at her home at Georgetown the first of the week. She was a devout member of the Baptist church and an excellent woman.

Branching Out.

The Climax office sent a nice bill of job printing to Newport this week. This in the face of the fact that Newport has one of the biggest printing and lithographing concerns in the world makes us feel pretty good, thank you.

Death of a Little Boy.

Marshall, the 18-month-old son of Mr. Ira Parke, who lives near Doyleville, died a few days ago, after a brief illness. He was a nephew of Mr. Jas. B. Parke, who with his family attended the burial. Marshall was a bright and cheerful little fellow and his parents are almost broken-hearted over his death. The burial occurred in the Seudder burying-ground.

Knocked Out Again.

For the third time the drags of Pulaski county tried to have an election on the whisky question and were foiled. This time they presented a petition bearing 2,500 names and the wets one with 13 asking that they be stricken from the list in one precinct. This reduced the number to less than 25 per cent. of the voters in that precinct and the election was not called.

Opera House.

Yaudeville will again be the attraction at the opera house Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, when the Southern Musical Co., consisting of up-to-date musical specialties will be the offering. Included among the specialties are Miss Madeline Crans, a violinist and operatic soprano soloist, Thedma and Bernard Sherman, musical chimes artists, and Miss Sherman, the popular juvenile song and dance artist. In connection with the above three high grade photoplays will be shown.

Agreeable Surprise at I. O. O. F. Lodge Meeting.

On Monday night after the members of Madison Lodge, No. 14, I. O. O. F., had been hard at work in the initiatory degree, Mr. Homer Taylor, the newly elected Noble Grand, surprised them by having served a big freezer of ice cream and with it delicious cake. It came at a very opportune time and the treat was greatly enjoyed. On next Monday night this order will put on the First degree and some high-class work may be expected. A full attendance of the membership is greatly desired.

Great Hog Sale.

Your attention is called to the advertisement of the great hog sale of McKee Bros., at their farm, Forest Home, near Versailles, on Tuesday, August 5th. A number of pedigreed sows, bred to the great Defender, and a lot of boars of all grades, will be sold. The sale will begin at 12:30 and buyers will be there from all over the country. The McKees have become famous as hog breeders, their premium boar, Defender, standing probably higher than any other boar in the State. This hog cost $5,000. All wine sold at this sale will be guaranteed cholera proof for one year. Write for catalogue.

'Twill Soon be Postmaster Stockton.

It will be only a few days until the transfer of the postoffice business is made and then for the first time in many years the Richmond people will have a Democrat to handle their mails. This is good news only in that the people will have come into their own and that a mighty good Democratic citizen of Richmond gets a good berth. For this the Democrats feel that they have reason to give thanks. But on the other hand, many of them are sorry that Postmaster C. C. Wallace, who has made such an excellent official for the past fifteen years, will serve them no more. Everybody likes Mr. Wallace, who is not only a splendid postmaster, but a fine gentleman and citizen as well. And it gives us pleasure to say that what has been said of him can very truthfully be said of his successor, Mr. R. C. Stockton, than whom no finer gentleman lives. Mr. Stockton has sent on his bond for approval and on the return of it, he will proceed to take charge, and in doing so he will have the willing assistance of his predecessor and his assistants. Success to him!

Madison County Court Members In The City.

County Judge W. Rhodes Shackelford of Richmond, was in Lexington Thursday, accompanied by members of the fiscal court of Madison county, including County Road Supervisor June Baxter, and Justices Jacob Hackett, Joseph Long, H. C. Rice, W. E. Taylor and Luther Todd, who were starting on their annual tour of the Blue Grass Region, carefully inspecting the roads over which they travel. Madison county, under the able administration of Judge Shackelford, has some of the finest roads in Kentucky, and upon his record for building good roads the judge is making his strongest bid for re-election, although he has given his people an honest and able administration all along the line. Judge Shackelford and his guests, who were making the trip in an automobile, had dinner at the Phoenix Hotel and left later later in the afternoon for Georgetown and Paris. Judge H. C. Rice, who was in the party, is Judge Shackelford's opponent for the democratic nomination for county judge. The party will return to Richmond today.—Lexington Herald.

Church Notes

Rev. Dr. McCheslin, of Bowling Green, has been called to the First Presbyterian church of Montgomery, Ala.

Rev. Ellis B. Barnes, who has been in Canada, will return the last of next week to take up his work on the first Sabbath in August.

In the Methodist Episcopal Church, North, the Sunday-school membership is 427,726 in excess of the church membership.

Rev. A. H. Higgins, a nephew of Mr. John A. Higgins, of this city, has accepted a call to the Presbyterian church at Georgetown.

Rev. J. V. Logan dedicated a beautiful new Presbyterian church at Middleboro last Sunday. His brother, Rev. Sanford Logan, preached the sermon on the occasion.

In the United States are ten Baptist theological seminaries, with 520 students; 97 universities and colleges, with 35,000 students, and 91 secondary schools with 15,320 students.

The Sunday-school rooms of the Presbyterian church have been thoroughly renovated with new paper and fresh paint, and are in nice condition for the good work to go forward next Sabbath.

Dr. Quisenberry, the popular pastor of the Baptist church, will leave next week for the North, where he will spend the month of August, returning in time for the State Association, which meets August 20th.

The Winona Conference, at Winona Lake, Ind., will be in session Aug. 22-31. Secretary of State W. J. Bryan is president of this association. He will deliver the opening address this year. This is a good place to go and spend a pleasant and profitable vacation.

Rev. Egbert W. Smith, D. D., of Nashville, will preach at the First Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning. Dr. Smith is one of the most noted preachers in the South and is a brother of President Henry Louis Smith, of Washington and Lee University, of Virginia. Large congregations will hear him at both the morning and evening services. The Union services will be held in that church.

THE PERFECT PRAYER:

Dear Lord! Kind Lord!
Gracious Lord! I pray
Thou wilt look on all I love
Tenderly today!
Weed their hearts of weariness;
Scatter every care,
Down a wake of angel-wings
Winnowing the air.
Bring unto the sorrowing
All release from pain;
Let the lips of laughter
Overflow again;
And with all the needy;
O, divide I pray
This vast treasure of content
That is mine today!
—James Whitcomb Riley.

The Meeting at Newby.

Dr. D. M. Walker, of Stanford, who has been holding a protracted meeting at Newby, phoned us this morning that the meeting closed last night. The visible results were rather small, but the membership was greatly awakened and he believes that the meeting will rebound to inestimable good. He baptized two men and a woman this morning. Last night was devoted to a temperance discussion and an immense crowd was on hand. Powerful influence will be brought to bear on the candidates for county offices to abstain from the use of money and whisky in the present campaign by the people of the Millon and Newby sections. Dr. Walker stated that whisky had been considerably in evidence around the church and that the better people had determined to bring about a better state of affairs along that line than now exists. It is indeed unfortunate that in this civilized country there are persons so depraved as those who will take whisky to the house of God with which to debauch their fellow men. Shame on them.

Two companies of militia were held in readiness, if needed, to proceed to Osnating, N. Y., where the convicts have been mutinous for two days.

GREEN CLAY MAKES STATEMENT

Being a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative from Madison county in the next General Assembly of Kentucky I think it proper to outline to the citizens of Madison the principals and aims that will govern my actions if elected a member of the law making body of our state.

I was born and raised on a farm in this county near Foxstown, am forty-one years old and have voted the straight Democratic ticket at every election, both local and national, since my twenty third birthday. Was educated in the common schools and the High School at Ann Arbor Michigan, Central University, Richmond Ky., and graduated from the Law Department of the Columbia University, Washington City. For four years I practiced law in Richmond Ky., and am now a member of the bar here though I have not been in active practice for many years.

My business interests are now, and have been for several years, centered entirely in farming on a part of the old home near Jack's Creek pike. I am a heavy tax payer in this county and the interests of every farmer and worker in Madison are the same as mine. It will be my aim to do away with every expenditure of public money wherever possible consistent with good government. I am heartily opposed to any extravagance in public office or appropriation of money where it can be avoided.

I am well aware that the farmer, laborer and small business man has not been justly considered heretofore by our law makers. This condition of things I shall endeavor to remedy to the end that no special privilege or exemption from the burden of government shall be granted or allowed any man or body of men. I shall work towards an equalization of taxes on the part of every citizen of the state so that the protection and benefits of good government will be allotted to all in unequal proportion. I shall endeavor to see that every business interest in Kentucky loses the line of strict justice and conformity with the legal obligations set forth in the Statutes. I will go farther than that. If the laws now in force do not hold every man to a strict adherence to justice I shall try to amend those laws or pass new ones that will hold him in obedience to the will of the majority. There must be strict equality before the law.

There will be no effort on my part to cripple or hold back business progress in any line but there will be no undue advantage taken if I can prevent it. At the same time my every effort will be towards the uplifting of the social and moral standard of our citizenship, knowing as I do that only through moral and social advancement will we gain peace, comfort and happiness. It would be impossible at this time to state definitely what will be the exact stand taken by your representative on any particular bill before the House until that bill is created but I believe this short statement will outline what my attitude will be in case you see fit to allow me the honor of re-

Editor Needs Shoes.

A Kansas editor has notified the merchants of his town that he will soon be in need of a pair of shoes, a new shirt and a sack of flour, and will call for bills on these items, as that is the custom of the merchants when they want four dollars' worth of printing. At least he is pursuing a business-like policy.—Montgomery Advertiser.

The Proper Solution.

There has been a great moral awakening all over the country. In nearly every county in the State civic leagues have been formed to promote a healthy, vigorous public sentiment in favor of law, order, decency and justice. The majority of people have decided that old-time sordid methods of electing the servants—the officials, who are to serve the people, must be eliminated. They have declared for fair, honorable and just methods of conducting elections, rather than the heretofore methods of resorting to bribery—to the use of money and whisky in campaigns, and the debauchery of the electorate. In many counties the candidates have pledged themselves that they will neither use MONEY nor WHISKY in their race for office, but will do everything possible to uphold the majesty of the law and assist in the prosecution of any candidate who flagrantly violates the law.

Now, the candidate who goes about the county with MONEY and WHISKY, supplying it in large quantities to his co-workers, and depending it in large quantities to the voters, is a criminal of the very worst type. Many a life has been sacrificed by and through this damnable outrage. And yet, the candidate, who was responsible for this heinous crime, was often elected to serve the people and sat in judgment, and had the word "Honorable" attached to his name. Such infamy should make our cheeks burn and glow with the hectic flush of shame. How can we expect the enactment of good laws and prosperous administrations to ensue when BRIBERY sits on the throne and holds the reins of government? The people have been asleep a long time; but they are becoming aroused. They are beginning to realize the danger to our free institutions. And it is well. Let them arise and make warfare upon those who are resorting to base and evil means to secure office. Let them, for once all, banish the evil and sinister influences practiced by many of our candidates. Let them banish the curse of MONEY and WHISKY from politics, and leave to posterity a free, untrammeled ballot. Every candidate who loves the stars and stripes; loves freedom, home and country, should assist in eliminating every evil influence. If the candidates will not be good, it is the duty of the citizens, the voters, to make them comply with the law. Citizens will you do it?

Madison county has a large number of candidates for the various offices. In the beginning of the campaign, considerable effort was made on the part of citizens and a few candidates to induce all candidates to pledge themselves to abstain from the use of MONEY and WHISKY. A few candidates agreed, but the majority stood aloof, and the record of the campaign is a matter of history to every person in the county. And the result is anything but gratifying to those who want decency and fair play. The only proper solution is for the people to rebuke those candidates who rebuked the people.

As a candidate for County Clerk, I have pledged the people that I will neither use MONEY nor WHISKY to influence the voters. I believe honesty is the best of policy, and if I cannot win the office without MONEY and WHISKY—by debauching the voters—the homes of Madison county, I don't want it.

I trust you will keep in mind I am a candidate for County Clerk, and if you are opposed to the use of MONEY and WHISKY in the campaign, you will give me your support and influence.

Yours respectfully,

JAMES B. WALKER,

Candidate for County Clerk, Democratic Primary, August 2, 1913.

RHEUMA purifies the blood and throws off complicating diseases.

Weakening of the blood tissues by continued attacks of Rheumatism affects the heart and produces complications which result fatally. RHEUMA puts the blood in condition to ward off other diseases and eradicates Rheumatic conditions from the whole system. RHEUMA builds up the body by removing the poisonous waste matter which comes from enfeebled blood. Recommended for all forms of Rheumatism. One bottle costing 50 cents at B. L. Middleton's will convince you of its great value. 85-21.

I'm not a High School man alone, or a common school man alone, but a public school man.

My preparation to fill the duties of this office has not been hurried. School work has been my life-work—my trade—the way I have learned to support my family.

I have always attended National, State, County, and District Educational Meetings, and have done and said the best I could when duty called. I have fulfilled all things as the law requires. Took my examination at Frankfort May 30-31 of this year, qualifying me to hold this office, and received the highest average certificate of those examined at the same time, from over the State.

I elected to supervise the children and teachers of this county, I promise that no detail or urgent need shall escape my attention. The smallest and weakest district shall, like the sick child, receive my first and most earnest attention, for child life is at stake, your child, my child, a fabric if neglected or once woven wrong you can't unravel and knit again.

I leave the question to the sober judgment of the fathers, the brothers, the mothers and voters as to who is best fitted to supervise the physical, moral, and intellectual growth of the children of dear old Madison for the next four years.

Yours respectfully,

ELMER DEATHERAGE.

A word, a thought, a deed or a vote will be appreciated by me in my race for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Madison county.

Rid Your Children of Worms.

You can change fretful, ill-tempered children into healthy, happy youngsters, by ridding them of worms. Tossing, rolling, grinding of teeth, crying out while asleep, accompanied with intestinal pains in the stomach and bowels, feverishness and bad breath, are symptoms that indicate worms. Kickapoo Worm Killer, a pleasant candy lozenge, expels the worms, regulates the bowels, restores your children to health and happiness. Mrs. J. A. Brislin, of Elgin, Ill., says: "I have used Kickapoo Worm Killer for years, and entirely rid my children of worms. I would not be without it." Guaranteed. All drug stores, or by mail. Price 25c. To The Candidates For Jailor.

I started in to make a clean race for jailor, have done so till now and am going to continue to do so. I will not use either money, liquor or any other unfair means to secure votes, and here and now challenge all the other candidates for this office to sign and keep an agreement with me to that effect. This agreement is waiting for you at the Climax office.

Yours for a clean election, R. A. BARLOW. 85-21

Important Announcement and Appeal.

The following announcement and appeal is made from the home of the laudable enterprise in Louisville. Read it and see if you can not be instrumental in helping some unfortunate.

The Kentucky Institution for the Education of the Blind is the eighth oldest in the nation, founded in 1812, colored department opened in 1884.

Probably it is the most successful, having perfect sanitation, lowest death rate and never a fatal accident.

It is a part of the Educational System of the State; a FREE boarding school for the blind of school age; children do not have to be totally blind; all with defective eyesight, such as would prevent successful study in a seeing school, are eligible.

Girls are taught Writing (pencil-point and typewriting), Shopwork, Sewing (machine and hand), Spelling, Reading, Piano-tuning, Physiology, History, Grammar, Geography (general and physical), English Literature, Drawing, Cooking and domestic duties, Arithmetic and Algebra.

THE DEMOCRATS OF MADISON COUNTY.

COLLEGE HILL, KY., July 21, 1913.

It is with great reluctance, that I find it necessary to defend for the second time, in my race for the Democratic nomination for Superintendent of Schools, the legality of my certificate of eligibility to that office which, has been questioned by one of my opponents namely, H. H. Brock. I regret that this opponent for whom I entertain the kindest feeling and the highest respect, should endeavor to discredit an opponent, who is a candidate for the office whom he well knows to be equally capable, both from the standpoint of education and experience, and equally qualified locally, avoiding the technicality of a sentence in an old law, which, in the judgment of the Superintendent of Public Instruction Barksdale Hamlett himself, does not render illegal the certificate held by myself.

The new law of 1912 covering the eligibility of candidates for this office reads as follows: "There shall be a county superintendent of common schools in each county of the State who shall be possessed of good moral character and ability to manage the common school interest of the county efficiently." He shall possess a good English education and shall be competent to examine the teachers who shall apply to teach the common schools in the county. He shall be twenty-four years old at the time of qualifying, a citizen of Kentucky, shall have resided two years next preceding the election in this state and one year in the county for which he is a candidate. No person shall be eligible to the office of county superintendent unless he shall hold from the State Board of Examiners, a State diploma or a State certificate which will not expire during his proposed term of office; or a certificate of qualification which shall in all respects, be the equivalent of a State certificate issued by the State Board of Examiners, on a personal examination held at the State Capitol on the last Friday and Saturday in May and June next preceding the election of County Superintendent, etc."

This act was signed by the Governor on March 18, 1912, is the present law governing the qualification of candidates for the office of superintendent of common schools.

I hold a State Certificate issued to me by the State Board of Examiners, three years ago, which does not expire until 1915, or six months after the expiration of the term of office, for which I am a candidate.

The original certificate is in my possession; there is a public record of it in the office of the State Superintendent at Frankfort, which has been certified by that office, and heretofore published. I desire also, in this connection, to quote from a letter dated July 19, 1913, addressed to myself, and signed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, which fully shows the legality of my certificate, and that he concurs in my view of the matter.

"Any State certificates issued by the State Board of Examiners is legal in any county, as long as the local County Superintendent allows it to remain in force."

For your guidance in the matter of the legal qualifications of a candidate for County Superintendent, I quote from the act of 1912: "No person shall be eligible to the office of County Superintendent, unless he shall hold from the State Board of Examiners, a State certificate, which will not expire during the proposed term of office, or a certificate of qualification which shall in all respects, be the equivalent of a State certificate issued by the State Board of Examiners, etc."

Your certificate does not expire during the proposed term of office and as long as it is adjudged a legal certificate by the County Superintendent of your county, you are legally qualified to hold the office of County Superintendent."

The original of this letter can be seen by anyone desiring to see it.

I regret exceedingly that it is necessary for me to thus defend my right to be a candidate, in doing so I have been careful to say nothing offensive about my opponent, who has so far forgotten himself as to attempt to discredit one whom he knows is not only well qualified, and a good Democrat, but one who shall be pleased to support the nominee of the party for this office, whomsoever it may be.

I have been a teacher in this and adjoining counties for approximately twenty years, and believe the best interests of the common schools of the county are as well known to me as to either of the two opposing candidates.

As to my moral character, you are most respectfully referred to my neighbors, and the patrons of the schools where I have taught.

Thanking one and all for the generous support so kindly given me in my race thus far, I now desire to ask you to redouble your energies in the interest of my candidacy.

Very Respectfully, B. F. EDWARDS.

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble.

When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. Mrs. G. Stenge, Plainfield, N. J., writes: "For over a month past I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklets came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who had been cured by Chamberlain's Tablets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost everything that I want." For sale by all dealers.

PUBLIC SALE OF LAND

We will offer for sale publicly to the highest bidder on

Thursday, Aug. 21, 1913,

At 11 o'clock a. m., our farm, containing about 108 acres of highly improved land, situated on the pike at Speedwell, Ky. There is on this farm a splendid 7 room residence, with porches; 2 barns, one of which is new; carriage house, all necessary outbuildings, good cistern, 4 permanent ponds, and a thrifty, bearing orchard.

This is one of the most desirable homes in the county, the land being fertile, capable of producing the most valuable crops raised, such as corn, wheat, oats and tobacco, and is within a few hundred yards of postoffice, church and public school, and within one mile of a railroad station. Perfect title. Possession given January 1, 11.

At the same time and place we will sell in the same manner about 75 barrels of corn, one good milk cow, two good work horses, good farm wagon, a saddle, some harness and a lot of farm tools. TERMS—One-third cash, balance on liberal terms, made known on day of sale.

RENTING.

At the same time, we will rent for the year 1914, another farm, lying on the opposite side of the road, containing 330 acres. For any further particulars, call on our attorney, C. C. Wallace, at Richmond, Ky.

Steel Frame Low Spread Manure Spreader

Have you ever seen any spreader with more or as many good features? Waist high box—easy to load; makes the shortest turns and spreads evenly at corners; spreads when turning either way; positive force feed—no rolling forward of the load when the manure is moved toward the beater; even spreading until the last forkful is spread; made in seven sizes; wide and narrow boxes; special attachments for drilling and spreading lime.

Ask us also about our new wide spread attachment which scatters manure over an area eight feet wide—a very handy and convenient device for top dressing growing corn.

The next time you are in town stop and get a catalogue. Ask us to show you this machine—to show you how it will save work and increase profits. Give us a chance to prove that the Low Spread tops them all.
